The Trouble with Medical Journals Richard Smith, 2006-09-15 It is a turbulent time for STM publishing. With moves towards open access to scientific literature, the future of medical journals is uncertain and unpredictable. This is the only book of its kind to address this problematic issue. Richard Smith, a previous editor of the British Medical Journal for twenty five years and one of the most influential people within medical journals and medicine depicts a compelling picture of medical publishing. Drawn from the author's own extensive and unrivalled experience in medical publishing, Smith provides a refreshingly honest analysis of current and future trends in journal publishing including peer review, ethics in medical publishing, the influence of the pharmaceutical industry as well as that of the mass media, and the risk that money can cloud objectivity in publishing. Full of personal anecdotes and amusing tales, this is a book for everyone, from researcher to patient, author to publisher and editor to reader. The controversial and highly topical nature of this book, will make uncomfortable reading for publishers, researchers, funding bodies and pharmaceutical companies alike making this useful resource for anyone with an interest in medicine or medical journals. Topic covered include: Libel and medical journals; Patients and medical journals; Medical journals and the mass media; Medical journals and pharmaceutical companies: uneasy bedfellows; Editorial independence; misconduct; and accountability; Ethical support and accountability for journals; Peer review: a flawed process and Conflicts of interest: how money clouds objectivity. This is a unique offering by the former BMJ editor- challenging, comprehensive and controversial. This must be the most controversial medical book of the 21st Century John Illman, MJA News Lively, full of anecdote and he [Smith] is brutally honest British Journal of Hospital Medicine  Please note that the reference to Arup Banerjee on page 100 of this book should be to Anjan Banerjee. Journal - One Line a Day Hinterland Journals Keepsakes, 2019-08 One Line a Day Journals for life-tracking and simple diary writing notebook for a 5-year span! Daily Paragraph Journal Space 365 days x 5 years Soft Matte Cover Premium Paper 6 x 9 Sturdy, Durable Design Start Anytime - Add Your Own Dates! Years ago, after my grandmother's passing, we came across her old leather-bound five-year journals. They were simple, one line a day books, in five-year groups, from her childhood on the farm during the Great Depression, and later in the '40s and '50s when she moved into town, got her first apartment, went to college and even started courting my grandfather (among other young men!). She logged every little event from game nights with relatives, programs they listened to on the radio, what she wore, the day she bought her own furniture to furnish her new apartment, and she even logged the days she washed and permed her hair! I fell so much in love with these little snippets of life from the woman I only knew in her old age and it occurred to me what a treasure these little paragraphs of her life really were - it was like a time-machine into the past and into her early life. Our One-Line-a-Day diaries are designed to pass along a line or two per day of your heritage on to the next generation and passed down for decades to come. Designed with a paragraph of space for each of the 365 days in a year, times five! A beautiful gift for a loved one, elementary children, high school and college, these journals make the perfect space for collecting memories, collecting simple gratitude affirmations - one day, one line at a time!
