Guy P. Harrison

You Are the Ref Paul Trevillion, David Hills, 2006-12-01 You Are the Ref charts the history of the iconic comic strip that became a favourite with millions of football-mad kids and adults throughout the '60's, '70s and '80s. It has appeared alongside Roy of the Rovers, on the pages of Shoot magazine and has recently been revived to huge popular acclaim in The Observer Newspaper. Alongside the strips themselves are hundreds of accompanying Trevillion illustrations that set the scene for each era. These explosive images of sporting greats in action include, Pele, Maradona, Gary Lineker, Jack Niclaus, Muhammed Ali and Tiger Woods, along with famous figures such as Winston Churchill, Richard Burton and Rudolf Nureyev. Paul Trevillion has been described as the finest sports artist Europe has ever produced. He was the defining creative force behind the legendary Roy of the Rovers strip in the '60s - the dynamism of his artwork setting a new standard in Comic Art Realism that will never be surpassed.

50 Places to See Before You Die & 50 Places That Are a Lot More Fun Nicholas Noyes, 2008-02 Here's just the antidote for the modern day affliction of overachieving, even on vacation. This humorous anti-guidebook juxtaposes 50 must-see destinations with 50 places that will satisfy your inner child ... you know, the one with the naughty streak. If the Coliseum seems a bit trite, indulge in some gladiatorial gazpacho at the world's largest tomato fight-La Tomatina-in Valencia, Spain. Can't make it to Stonehenge this year? How about a jaunt to Nebraska, where Carhenge adds a kitschy spin to this relic from prehistory? Got a problem with the Running of the Bulls in Pamplona? Check out the Running of the Nudes. Here's your guide to the road less traveled ... and more fun! 96 pages.

50 Psychology Classics Tom Butler-Bowdon, 2010-12-07 In a journey spanning 50 books, hundreds of ideas and over a century, 50 Psychology Classics looks at some of the most intriguing questions relating to the human mind. This brand new edition covers the great thinkers of psychology right up to the present day, from iconic psychologists such as Freud, Piaget, and Pavlov to contemporary classic texts like Thinking, Fast and Slow; Quiet and The Marshmallow Test. 50 Psychology Classics examines what motivates us, what makes us feel and act in certain ways, how our brains work, and how we create a sense of self. This is the perfect introduction to some of psychology's greatest minds and their landmark books.

50 Popular Beliefs That People Think Are True Guy P. Harrison, 2012-01-03 "What would it take to create a world in which fantasy is not confused for fact and public policy is based on objective reality?" asks Neil deGrasse Tyson, science popularizer and author of Astrophysics for People in a Hurry. I don't know for sure. But a good place to start would be for everyone on earth to read this book. Maybe you know someone who swears by the reliability of psychics or who is in regular contact with angels. Or perhaps you're trying to find a nice way of dissuading someone from wasting money on a homeopathy cure. Or you met someone at a party who insisted the Holocaust never happened or that no one ever walked on the moon. How do you find a gently persuasive way of steering people away from unfounded beliefs, bogus cures, conspiracy theories, and the like? This down-to-earth, entertaining exploration of commonly held extraordinary claims will help you set the record straight. The author, a veteran journalist, has not only surveyed a vast body of literature, but has also interviewed leading scientists, explored the most haunted house in America, frolicked in the inviting waters of the Bermuda Triangle, and even talked to a contrite Roswell alien. He is not out simply to debunk unfounded beliefs. Wherever possible, he presents alternative scientific explanations, which in most cases are even more fascinating than the wildest speculation. For example, stories about UFOs and alien abductions lack good evidence, but science gives us plenty of reasons to keep exploring outer space for evidence that life exists elsewhere in the vast universe. The proof for Bigfoot or the Loch Ness Monster may be nonexistent, but scientists are regularly discovering new species, some of which are truly stranger than fiction. Stressing the excitement of scientific discovery and the legitimate mysteries and wonder inherent in reality, this book invites readers to share the joys of rational thinking and the skeptical approach to evaluating our extraordinary world.

The Center of Everything Jamie Harrison, 2021-01-12 Set against the wild beauty of Montana as a woman attempts to heal from a devastating accident, this generational saga from the award-winning author of The Widow Nash is a heartfelt examination of how the deep bonds of family echo throughout our lives. For Polly, the small town of Livingston, Montana, is a land charmed by raw, natural beauty and a close network of family that extends back generations. But the summer of 2002 finds Polly at a crossroads: a recent head injury has scattered her perception of the present, bringing to the surface long-forgotten events. As Polly's many relatives arrive for a family reunion during the Fourth of July holiday, a beloved friend goes missing on the Yellowstone River. Search parties comb the river as carefully as Polly combs her mind, and over the course of one fateful week, Polly arrives at a deeper understanding of herself and her larger-than-life relatives. Weaving together the past and the present, from the shores of Long Island Sound to the landscape of Montana, The Center of Everything examines with profound insight the memories and touchstones that make up a life and what we must endure along the way.
